

Activity Worksheet

Anchoring our hearts on God's heart toward us

This activity invites group members to reflect on and share God's heart for people.

Preparation

1. You will need a flip-chart or dry erase board and markers.
2. Print and cut the enough worksheets so that each member of your group and can have one. (See page 2)

Engagement

1. As your members gather, give each person one of the three instructions listed below (see page 2).
2. Ask your members to write down their words and hold onto their page until everyone arrives.
3. When everyone arrives, invite your group to share their words for each topic. Write the words down on the flip-chart or dry board.
 - a. Instruction 1: Choose three emotions words that describe God's attitudes toward people who love Him.
 - b. Instruction 2: Choose three emotions words that describe God's attitudes toward people who don't know Him.
 - c. Instruction 3: Choose three words that describe the characteristics of the relationship God desires for us to have with Him.
4. Take your time, making sure to really treasure the words that your group members share.
5. Use the words you've collected as you pray for your gathering,

Group Reflection

1. Invite 2 or 3 participants to talk briefly about their experience of sharing the sharing the words the members chose.

Instruction 1: Choose three emotions words that describe God's attitudes toward people who love Him.

Instruction 2: Choose three emotions words that describe God's attitudes toward people who don't know Him.

Instruction 3: Choose three words that describe the characteristics of the relationship God desires for us to have with Him.
